COMMITTEE REPORTS

Facilities

Bill H reported that the committee met last week and has begun compiling a project list with proposed deadlines, costs, etc. He raised the question of how much money the library has to spend on facilities in a given year. Outside of budgeted funds for maintenance, the answer is a potential $13,000-$18,000, which would result from a draw from the endowment not to exceed 2% of the average of the previous 20 quarter’s investment portfolio earnings. (Natalie indicated that future fund depreciation will be discussed with the auditor once that process is underway.) It is recommended that the Facilities Committee begin identifying projects that will require funding over the next five years.

Finance

Report stands as attached.

Natalie called the board’s attention to the finance committee’s recommendation to submit a $20,000 library budget increase (6.16%) for the 2021 vote. The increase is expected to cover such priorities as the mandatory minimum wage increase and necessary building repairs, plus allow the library to move closer to its eventual goal of offering employee benefits.

After lengthy discussion, Natalie made a motion for the board to accept the 2021 tax request of $344,784, which had received unanimous approval from the Finance Committee. All were in favor, with one opposed. Approved.

Natalie is preparing talking points that the board may find useful when speaking with members of the community about the library budget.

Stacey will pull together a Sustainability 2.0 committee to draft a communications plan leading up to the vote.

NEW BUSINESS

Anne referenced the 2019 Annual Report to New York State, which she had shared with board members prior to the meeting. Particularly interesting, and encouraging, is the jump in circulation.

Darby made a motion, seconded by John, to approve the report and its submission to the state; passed unanimously.

Barb, who is also on the board of the Mid York Library System, shared that recommendations will be forthcoming as more information becomes available on the coronavirus.

Barb also thanked those who provided food for the chamber breakfast.

A motion was made by Stacey to adjourn the meeting at 7:42 p.m. Bill H seconded; passed unanimously.

2020 MEETINGS: 6:30 p.m. on March 26, April 23, May 28, June 25, Aug. 27, Sept. 24, Oct. 22.

Respectfully submitted,
Stacey J. Himmelberger, Secretary
