

Jump Start the New Year with the Kirkland Town Library

Can you complete 23 of these challenges in the first month of 2023?

If you do, your new year will be off to a great start!

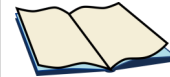

Bring this completed form back to the library by February 1 to get a prize.

Find a book with a place in the title.
What is the title?

Learn how to say "library" in three different languages.
What did you learn?

Browse a magazine.
Which one did you choose?

Read in your pajamas.
What did you read?

Visit the art show and leave a comment in the book.
What was your favorite piece?

Share a memory of a library.

Introduce yourself to the library director.
Ask her to initial this box.

Read a picture book for kids that takes place in the city.
Share the title of the book here:

Ask a friend or neighbor for a book recommendation.
What did they suggest?

Take a selfie with a member of the KTL staff.
Who held the phone?

Read in the morning.
What did you read?

Pick up a book using the KTL's locker.
How did it go?

Check out the titles in the History Room.
Write down the title of one you might like to read.

Take a break and sit for 10 minutes anywhere in the library.
Where did you sit?

Read on a snowy day.
What did you read?

Borrow something from the library that's not a book.
What did you choose?

How many books do you hope to read in 2023?

What was a favorite chapter book you read as child or teen?

Find a graphic novel.
Share the title of the book here:

Tell a staff member about a biography, autobiography, or memoir that you've read
Who did you talk to?

Read a newspaper article.
Which paper was it in?

Read at night.
What did you read?

Add a piece to the puzzle in the Reading Room.
When do you think the puzzle will be all done?

Find a painting hanging in the library and write down the name of the painting and the artist.

Read a book - your choice!
What did you read?

Watch a movie or TV show that was based on a book.
Which was better: the book or the movie?

Use your ears! Have someone read to you or listen to an audiobook.
What did you listen to?

Write a five-sentence review of a book and turn it in to the library staff.

What is an area of the non-fiction collection that you would like to explore? List a title from that section that sounds interesting.

What is the name of one of your favorite book characters?

Find a book that takes place during the winter.
What is it called?

Find a book originally written in another language.
Did the name of the book change when it was translated?